All players must have participated in at least 60% of the regular season games prior to the start of tournament play in their respective division.

MANAGER AND COACH ELIGIBILITY

Manager and Coach Eligibility

The following chart illustrates the tournament team eligibility for managers and coaches based on their regular season status. Player Agents, District Administrator and district staff are NOT eligible to be selected as tournament managers and/or coaches.

X indicates eligibility for that division.

First column is regular season division and top row is tournament team divisions.

	8-10 BB	9-11 BB	LL BB	INT. BB	JL BB	SL BB	8-10 SB	9-11 SB	LL SB	JL SB	SL SB
Tee Ball Baseball
Minor League Baseball*	X	X
Little League Baseball	X	X	X

Junior League Baseball					X	X
Senior League Baseball					X	X
Tee Ball Softball
Minor League Softball*							X	X
Little League Softball							X	X	X
Junior League Softball										X	X
Senior League Softball										X	X

Managers and coaches in the Tee Ball division do not have tournament team eligibility.

*The Minor League division of play includes all levels (machine pitch, coach pitch, player pitch).

Managers and coaches can be such on multiple teams in both the regular season and in the international tournament. However, the inability to attend one team's game for another that he/she is named as a manager or coach should not be grounds for a temporary replacement.

Leagues that operate under division format or split league can not select managers, coaches or players from the opposite division. Example: Mike Smith in the American division is not eligible for the National division.

Regular season managers can be coaches and regular season managers can be coaches.
